

Yes, i am an actress interested indiversity in the arts. But first and foremost, I am a US citizen interested in protecting the health of our democracy. Democracy will be seriously compromised if the diverse voices of local broadcasting are co-opted by the single voice of centralized information and creativity. Dictatorships begin with the centralized manipulative control of information and cultural creativity.

Thank you for including the points of the open PUBLIC forum that is representative of a democratic country.